important places you need to know about on campus!

CAFÉ Credits

Did you know that you can get paid for attending some professional growth workshops and seminars at the CTL!

If you're not sure where or what the Center for Teaching & Learning is, check out the CTL Homepage for information on workshops and services as well a map and our hours!

Mark Your Calendars for the Adjunct Faculty Spring Conference!

The Adjunct Faculty Association's annual conference will be held on Saturday, March 24, 2007 at the Rio Salado College Conference Center from 8:00am - 2:00pm. This is a great opportunity for adjunct faculty new and old to attend a day of learning, networking, and conversation!

This year's event will include networking with your colleagues, professional development sessions, college dialogues, and the acknowledgment of Outstanding Adjunct Faculty on each campus. Light refreshments in the morning and lunch will also be provided.

Don't miss this great opportunity—register now at:

Dr. Hall's Tips for Getting a Full-Time Position

We had an overwhelming response to Dr. Christine Hall's presentation —over 35 aspiring residential faculty members showed up for “Applying for Residential Faculty Jobs at MCCCD.”

If you missed it, don't worry—with the help of our fabulous technology staff (thanks again, Jeff, Donna, an James!), you can access the information on the new CTL Blog in three ways!

- Listen to the audio
- View an ASL interpretation of the presentation
- Download Dr. Hall's notes from the presentation

(I suggest accessing the whole presentation since there were a lot of great questions that got answered which you'd miss with just the Powerpoint!)

Library Instruction: Not Just for English 102!

I sat down last month with MCC's Outreach Librarian, Zoe Luter, to talk about what our library has to offer MCC students and faculty, and I learned so much about the resources we have here that I just had to share!

Library instruction at MCC is much more than a generic presentation given to every class - our librarians will actually tailor a presentation to fit the needs of your class no matter what the discipline!

Each department has a specific faculty liaison librarian (click here to find yours), and you can request a presentation at any time throughout the semester. You don't even need to leave your office— just fill out this Online Request Form and give them at least a week's notice! (Presentations are available at the Red Mountain and the Southern & Dobson campus.)

In this digital age, information literacy is more important than ever and making sure that our students have the skills to do academic research is part of preparing them to succeed when they transfer to a four-year institution!
