

LMS (WebCT) Communications Workshop

CTL Website for detailed workshop information and step-by-step guides

<http://ctl.mc.maricopa.edu>, Click on the WebCT link at the left under QuickLinks

Workshop Overview

This hands-on workshop will introduce participants to the various communication tools within WebCT, a web-based course management system that can be used for online course delivery or in-person course support. Attend this workshop to gain an understanding of the various pedagogical strengths and weaknesses of the communication tools within WebCT including mail, discussions, who's online, and announcements.

Outcomes

After attending this workshop participants shall be able to:

- Participate using various communication tools within WebCT from a student perspective.
- Turn on various communication tools within WebCT (mail, discussions, chat, who's online, and announcements).
- Create multiple communication prompts within WebCT.
- Discuss the pedagogical strengths and weaknesses of each communication tool within WebCT.
- Discuss the pedagogical strengths and weaknesses of the groups feature and grading rubrics.

Workshop Assessment and Evaluation

If you are taking this workshop for either FPG or Café Credits, you must take the course assessment and evaluation. It is located at: <http://tinyurl.com/5hylh9>

FPG Evaluation Form

Full Time faculty that have completed this workshop as part of the LMS Series for FPG credit must submit their FPG application form at the completion of the entire workshop series. To find out more about how to submit your FPG form go to: http://www.mcli.dist.maricopa.edu/fpg/internal_conf.html

Café Credit

Adjunct faculty that have completed this workshop and would like to receive Café credit for it should refer to the information at:

http://ctl.mc.maricopa.edu/_programs/cafe/tracking_form/index.html

Where to go for help?

Contact the Center for Teaching & Learning at ctl@mcmail.maricopa.edu or by phone at (480) 461-7331 for help or to schedule an appointment to answer questions regarding materials presented in this workshop.